St. James's, March 7.

THE following humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Bayliffs and Burgeſſes, High-Steward, Under-Steward, Gentlemen, and other the Inhabitants of His Majeſty's Borough of New-Windſor, in the County of Berks, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Right Honourable the Earl of Inchiquin, one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, introduced by his Grace the Duke of St. Albans. Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,
The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Bayliffs and Burgeſſes, High-Steward, Under-Steward, Gentlemen, and other the Inhabitants of your Majeſty's Borough of New-Windſor in the County of Berks.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

IN the midſt of the greateſt Calm and Security at Home that any People are capable of enjoying, happy in the beſt and moſt humane of Princes, the pureſt Religion, and the fulleſt Poſſeſſion of Liberty and Property, (Plants that thrive and flouriſh only in a Proteſtant Soil,) we on a ſudden ſee a Storm gathering from Abroad that threatens us with the Deſtruction of all theſe Bleſſings at once, and to force upon us in Exchange a bigotted Popiſh Pretender, whom we neither Love nor Fear, and an Arbitrary abſolute Government, the very worſt of human Calamities that can poſſibly happen to this free Nation.

We find with Indignation your moſt Sacred Majeſty, together with the Britiſh Honour and Commerce, inſulted (in Breach of the moſt ſolemn Treaties) by a Prince whom we lately ſaw in this Place under very different Circumſtances, and who owes it to the Britiſh Generoſity and Valour that either himſelf or his Family are in a Condition at this Time to inſult them or any other Nation.

But we are ſtill more ſurprized to hear of the ſame injurious Treatment from another Prince who is ſo ill informed of the true Affections and real Intereſt of the People of Great-Britain, as to dream of ſucceeding in an Invaſion of your Majeſty's Kingdoms in favour of the deſperate Fortunes of the baffled Pretender and his perjured Adherents, at the ſame Time forgetting (we preſume) that he himſelf has not been able to defend or preſerve his own Dominions.

Under theſe Provocations, if your Majeſty, in Conjunction with your high Allies, ſhall be compelled to draw your Sword in the Defence of our Religion, our Laws, and all thoſe Advantages of Commerce, which alone have diſtinguiſhed this happy Iſland from the neighbouring World, as the Seat of Liberty, Plenty, and Eaſe; we have the ſtrongeſt Reaſons to promiſe ourſelves and our Fellow-Subjects ſuch an Iſſue of ſo neceſſary a War, as may be glorious to your Majeſty's Arms in the preſent, and productive of the Bleſſings of Peace to ſucceeding Generations.

That your Majeſty's Reign may be long and proſperous over us; and that this Nation may always remain and be under the gracious Protection and Government of your ſacred Majeſty and your Royal Deſcendants to all Ages, are the daily Prayers of,

May it pleaſe your moſt Excellent Majeſty,
Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and obedient Subjects.

The following humble Addreſs of the Biſhop Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Exeter, and of the Clergy of the Dioceſe of Exeter, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Dr. Gilbert Dean of Exeter, in the Ab-

(Price Two Pence.)

Abſence of the Lord Biſhop of that Dioceſe, introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Viſcount Townſhend one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State. Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,
The humble Addreſs of the Biſhop Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Exeter, and of the Clergy of the Dioceſe of Exeter.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's dutiful Subjects, the Clergy of the Dioceſe of Exeter, ſeeing not only the Commerce of your Kingdoms at once aſſaulted and undermined, but an Invaſion of England agreed upon to inthrone the Enemy of our Religion; unleſs we ſhould forget the Situation and particular Intereſts of theſe Countries, cannot be ſlow to acknowledge and implore the Continuance of your Majeſty's Royal Cares in our Favour, and profeſs our chearful Dependence, under the Divine Aid, on your known Wiſdom and Magnanimity.

Permit us at the ſame Time, moſt gracious Sovereign, to lay at your Feet, and publiſh to all the World this Teſtimony and Engagement of our Reſolution, to ſupport in our Stations the Meaſures taken by your Majeſty for the neceſſary Defence of Church and State; their preſent Happineſs and all their Intereſts are inſeparably united with thoſe of your Majeſty and Royal Family; and our Conviction of that, makes our Zeal and Fidelity immoveably the ſame for both. Religion, which inforces theſe Sentiments, obliges us alſo to propagate and fix them amongſt a loyal and brave People.

And that it may pleaſe Almighty God to inſpire all your Subjects with a full Senſe of the Happineſs He has given them under your Government, and the Duty thence reſulting both to your Majeſty and themſelves, of a zealous and inviolable Union in your Service; and that he would crown your Counſels and Arms with the Succeſs of reaſſuring the precious Rights of your People, Religious and Civil; a Succeſs your Majeſty ſo paternally, ſo chriſtianly prefers to all the Glories of Conqueſt.

Theſe are our fervent Prayers, and from the Conduct of Affairs our juſt Hopes, and t ey ſhall be ſincerely followed with ſuitable E deavours.

Madrid, Feb. 24, N. S. Our laſt Letters from the Camp before Gibraltar, are of the 19th Inſtant, and adviſe, that the Retardment of the March of the Artillery, occaſioned by the Impracticableneſs of the Roads from the continual Rains fallen of late in thoſe Parts, had obliged the Spaniards to ſuſpend the opening of the Trenches: But that two or three Days before, the Weather having changed and become fair, it was expected that in five or ſix Days more ſo many Pieces of the ſaid Artillery might be brought up, as would ſuffice for their firſt Batteries; which was the only thing wanting for the opening of the Trenches, and what M. de Verboom, in Oppoſition to the Importunity of the Conde de las Torres, poſitively inſiſted upon, before any other Operation ſhould be undertaken. All the Letters from the ſaid Camp agree, that the Army is already weakened near a fourth Part, by Sickneſs and Deſertion. His Catholick Majeſty has been pleaſed to appoint Don Geronimo de Uztariz to be Secretary of the Council of Finances, and Don Manos Montoto (who was one of the Duke de Ripperda's chief Clerks) to be Secretary of the Revenue called Millones. His Catholick Majeſty has alſo granted to Don Guillermo Eon (the Director for the Aſſiento de Negros, who lately came from London) the Title and Rank of Counſellour for the Indies, with a Penſion of Six Hundred Piſtoles a Year. To-Morrow Night their Catholick Majeſties will remove from the Pardo to the Palace here, and the Day following will go to reſide for ſome Weeks at the Buen-Retiro. It is adviſed from St. Andero, that they continue there with all poſſible Expedition the building of three Seventy Gun Ships, one of a Hundred and Sixteen Guns, and two Bomb-Veſſels, which they expect will be ready to be launched by the End of April next: That a vaſt Quantity of Timber is daily brought thither upon Wheel-Carriages from the Mountains, the greateſt Part of which is to be ſhipped off for Cadiz, where Ships are to be built, and the reſt is to remain at St. Andero for the ſame Purpoſe: That the Roſario, a Frigate of 50 Guns lately built, commanded by Captain Baltazar Sherlock, and the St. Francis, another new-built Ship of the ſame Force, commanded by Captain Gaſpar Rué, are compleating their Men from what People they can gather upon that Coaſt and from Galicia. Letters from Malaga of the 18th Inſtant relate, that two Veſſels were arrived there from Barcelona laden with Cannon-Ball for the Camp: And that the Duke of Wharton, with his Lady and Family, was to ſet out the Day following for the Spaniſh Camp.

Cadiz, Feb. 18, N. S. A Perſon who came hither Yeſterday from the Spaniſh Camp, brought an Account, that Sir Charles Wager with his Squadron came into the Bay of Gibraltar the 13th Inſtant: This Perſon confirms, as indeed do all the Letters from that Camp, the great Sickneſs in the Spaniſh Army and Deſertion from it: That beſides the Hardſhips they ſuffer from the Severity of the Weather, they are in want of Proviſions: That ſeven of the Cannon which went by Land from hence, were got to the Camp; and the reſt he ſaw upon the Road

Road at a great Diſtance from thence, ſunk into the Mire; ſo that till the Ways become better, it will be impoſſible for them to proceed any further. The St. Antonio, a new built Ship, came in here a few Days ago from St. Andero; ſhe is of the ſame Dimenſions as another new Ship called the St. Carlos, which is likewiſe here and carries 68 Guns; but as the Guns of the latter were thought too much crowded, the St. Antonio is made with Ports for only 56. Here are alſo two other Ships of War of 60 Guns each, one of 50, two of 30, two of 26, and one of 24: And though their Expedition to Gibraltar ſeems to be no longer thought of, our new Intendant is very buſy in compleating their ſeveral Equipages, which are very bad, conſiſting of Peaſants and Country-People, who not being uſed to Sea, every Day fall Sick, and are brought to the Hoſpital. The Intendant has therefore ſent to Buelva, Ayamonte, and the other Rivers hereabouts, for a Supply of Boatmen; who were regiſtred a few Months ago for this Purpoſe.

Paris, March 7, N. S. Yeſterday Morning arrived here from England, his Excellency Horatio Walpole, Eſq; Ambaſſadour Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary from His Britannick Majeſty to the moſt Chriſtian King.

This is to give Notice, That the Right Honourable the Lords Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury have been pleaſed to appoint Money to pay all the Arrears due to the Penſioners belonging to the Cheſt at Chatham to Lady-Day 1725; and that the ſaid Pay will begin on Tueſday the 11th of April 1727, at the Hill-Houſe in Chatham.

General Poſt-Office, London, March 4, 1726.

† In Juſtice to the Publick, as well as in Duty to the Memory of my Father, I find my ſelf obliged to declare, That the Book lately publiſhed by Dr. Strother, intituled, Materia Medica of Dr. PAUL HARMAN, is entirely ſpurious, and his Name only made uſe of to impoſe upon the Publick; which I am ready to prove to any one that will give himſelf the Trouble of comparing it with the Manuſcript under Dr. Herman's own Hand, at my Houſe in Little Dean's Yard, Weſtminſter. John Herman.
